

Food Technology

Department of Food Technology at ADCET got established in academic year 2019-20 and offers four year undergraduate (UG) degree program (B. Tech) in Food Technology. The program is started in view of demand from Indian food industries and requirement of specialist in Food Technology research. The aim of department is to produce employable movable graduates by providing skilled Food Technologists to food Industry and research sectors.

Department of Food Technology is having well experience faculty members as facilitator. Department has established connections with various food industries for students internships, trainings, projects and placement. Department is aiming to emerge as well established research center in Food Technology.

Faculty

Dr. Suyogkumar V. Taralkar

Professor and Head, Dean Academics

Education: PhD in Chemical Engineering

Teaching Experience: 13 Years

Research Experience: 4 Years

Publications: International Journals - 11, Conferences: 23

Research Projects: Ongoing- 01 (DST-SERB, Rs. 18.30 Lakhs), Completed-03 (Rs. 6.00 Lakhs)

